The Braes of Wansbeck

The Half-Day School will again be held at Stockton on the Forest Village Hall where there is parking to the rear of the hall. The class will be held from 2.00 – 5.15 with a short break for a drink half way through.

We welcome back Deb Lees as our teacher this year. Deb began Scottish Country Dancing at university in Newcastle, and gained her full certificate in 1987. She is currently Convenor of the RSCDS's E&T committee and also taught at our Harrogate weekend some years ago. Deb has taught classes and workshops all over the UK and believes that teaching classes and workshops is a great privilege.

Gillian Stewart returns again this year as our pianist. Gillian is from Newcastle, where she plays regularly for Newcastle Branch classes.

High Tea will be available at the end of the Class for those who have ordered it.

We are delighted to have the Braes of Wansbeck with their woodwind-led sound to play for us for the evening dance, 7.30 - 11.00 pm.

Light refreshments will be provided for the break at the evening dance.

Please apply before 30th September so that we can finalise catering arrangements.
